

Ani- Dialogue

Between civil society organization of Armenia and Turkey

Seminars, Yerevan, Armenia, October 14-17, 2010

In October 14-17, 2010 me Ruzanna Nadaryan participated in Ani dialogue which was based on the relations of Armenia and Turkey as volunteer of CDCS. The seminars were organized by CI (Caucasus Institute) and took place in Yerevan, Armenia. Young people from Turkey and Armenia took part in this program.

This program gave us a chance to get to know Turkish people well, to mingle with them and try to make better Turkish Armenian relations. The participants were divided into groups, which are Culture and Heritage, Education and Research, Environment, Human Rights and Democratization, Media and Journalism.

Besides we had an opportunity to spend a day in one of the most beautiful places of Armenia in Gyumri and introduce our culture to Turkish people.

Next year we hope that we will have the opportunity to continue the seminars in Turkey.
