In the beginning, the world was dark and void, and the Spirit of God hovered over the waters.
Then God said, "Let there be light," and there was light. God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness. God called the light "day" and the darkness "night." And there was evening, and there was morning, the first day. Thus the days and nights were completed, and the world was finished.

God created the world in six days.
